Classroom Notes

Dear Families,

WELCOME BACK! I hope everyone had a fun and relaxing winter break and enjoyed the snow days. Team Ronzio shared some exciting stories about building snowmen and sledding.

We had a great start to 2014 in room 202! We set goals for the New Year, reviewed expectations, and reviewed our geometry and economics knowledge we gained before break. ☺ Next week we will be taking a short district geometry test as well as starting our historical timeline and non-fiction writing projects. I am very excited for the rest of the year and cannot wait to see what Team Ronzio can accomplish! Due to the three day week, there will be no comments in Friday folders. Thank you for understanding.
